AMENDMENTS MADE IN THE BYE-LAWS OF THE U.P. STOCK EXCHANGE BY THE GOVERNING BOARD IN THEIR MEETING HELD ON 02-01-1999 AND APPROVED BY SEBI VIDE THEIR LETTER NO. SMDRP/SEAI-D/UPSE/14277/99 DATED JULY 12, 1999

Base Minimum Capital—(Amended Bye-law 69A)

69A. Irrespective of the volume of business every member shall maintain with the Exchange base minimum capital in the form of a deposit of rupees two lakhs or such other amount as may be prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Board of India or the Central Government from time to time. The security deposit kept by the member in the Exchange shall form part of the base minimum capital. Twenty five percent of the base minimum capital, or such other percentage as may be prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Board of India or the Central Government shall be maintained in cash with the Exchange. Another twenty five percent of the base minimum capital, or such other percentage as may be prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Board of India or the Central Government, shall remain in the form of long term fixed deposit of three years or more with a bank on which the Exchange shall be given a completely unencumbered and unconditional lien. The remaining fifty percent of the base minimum capital shall be maintained in the form of securities standing in the name of member. In evaluating the requirement of fifty percent of the base minimum capital to be maintained in the form of Securities the value of such securities shall be taken at thirty percent below their market value. The value of securities as herein mentioned shall be reviewed by the Exchange at least every two months keeping in view the market fluctuations. The Exchange can call for additional securities if necessary as a result of such review. The securities so deposited by member shall be pledged in favour of the Exchange. The member and the Exchange shall jointly apprise the companies concerned of the facts of such pledge.

Provided that a member may furnish an irrevocable bank guarantee in lieu of 50% of Base Minimum Capital in the form of Securities on the following conditions :—

- (i) The bank guarantee should be from a specified scheduled commercial bank and should be non-conditional.
- (ii) Members "No Objection" should not be the pre-condition for the encashment of the bank guarantee by the Exchange.
- (iii) The bank guarantee should be for a minimum period of three years and it should contain a clause enabling the beneficiary to lodge a claim/make demand on the bank within a period of six months from the date of expiry of the guarantee.
- (iv) The bank guarantee should be made realisable within 24 hours of its presentation with the bank".
